

A PAGE OF FUN

CHER UP.

Her Future Husband—I'm afraid our wedding trip will take all the time I've earned up.
 Mrs. Reno-Friend (cheerfully)—Never mind, dear. A wedding trip only happens once in three or four years.

WEARY WILLIES REPORT.

Ah, my poor man, what brought you to that?
 His face, mum. Yer didn't think I was wealthy enough to hire a taxi-cab, did you?

Humor From Childhood

I WAS dining with some friends of mine when I had not seen the same time, and the little daughter of my host was seated at my left. During the meal I turned to her and asked her name. She blushed rosy and hung her head upon being addressed by a stranger.
 Her papa said, "Can't you tell the gentleman your name?"
 "Patience, William," the little one made reply.
 "And how old are you?" I asked.
 "Four years old at 11 p. m."
 I have thought of this quaint reply and laughed at it many times since.

The Sad, Sad Truth

"What troubles you, my darling?"
 "I'm asked to find consolation for my longer on your cheek, dear, your eyes brim with pain, dear."
 "What means that soap, that sight?"
 "My dear, tell me—don't you know this is her reply."
 "I told you, dear, yesterday."
 "Ah, my dear, I'm a stoker."
 "I guess, like them customers."
 "Or the grease we had for dinner."

DEVOTED TO DUTY.

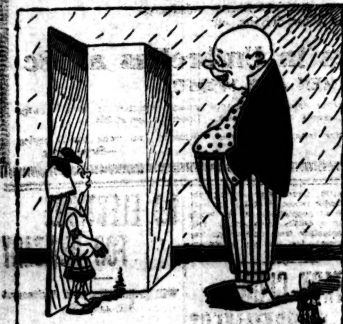

Hubby—Are you ever coming to bed?
 Wife—I don't know. I promised Mrs. Swift that I'd keep track of her husband while she is away, and I'm going to know what time he comes home if I have to stay up all night.

Wanted the Sensation

THE venerable farmer with the tobacco-stained whiskers and furrowed brow climbed aboard the limited and shambled into the smoker.
 "Mister," he drawled, when the conductor halted before him, "I've taken their 1-cent-a-mile rate good on this train."

"It is," replied the conductor abruptly, "whose is your ticket?"
 The old man fumbled in the depths of an ancient satchel bag.
 "Ah, got the ticket, mister," he said slowly, "but here he I come. I never rode on one of these penny pigs ere and I just want to feel the sensation. Put me off after I've rode one mile."

ON THE GO.
 The motor car goes whining by. The deadline fleets through the air. But the man who walks, his care are few—
 He gets where he is going to.

GIVING HIM AWAY.

Mr. Whod—who that I'm to be your new brother-in-law, won't you give me a hint?
 Lady—If I had time all day to tell you what she has promised to marry, it would be quite some.

A GENEROUS MAN.

"There are two hammocks here," she said as she lay down in one of them.
 "Well, there's no use of our being selfish," he replied as he sat down in the same hammock. "Let each one of us have the other."

STUCK.

Mother Home Run—Where you sent the team your father?
 Child Home Run—Yes, ma, but he wouldn't speak to me—he was busy with a tape.

Perhaps So

"Yes," he said, "we were engaged when I left."
 "And what I wanted to ask was if you are going to the same place again this summer?"
 "Undoubtedly."
 "And will you engage yourself again to me this season?"

"Oh, let's see? I can tell you nothing definite just now, but in case I don't have too many others on hand I'll reserve a place for you in my summer abode."
 And the matter stood that way when she bought two songs and went out.

"Oh, let's see? I can tell you nothing definite just now, but in case I don't have too many others on hand I'll reserve a place for you in my summer abode."
 And the matter stood that way when she bought two songs and went out.

COMPLIMENT.

Great Baseball Player—"My brother is a juggler, sir."
 Lady—Your best trick is done on the bench, son.

Summer Wanderings

I HAD a good time at the beach. They set a splendid table.
 An Ethel was a perfect peach. Or was it Ethel?

I like the mountains, I confess. For there I met a hair.
 Whose hairs was Genevieve, I guess. Or maybe Charlie.

I found the lake-side fine, indeed. One maiden eye and clasp.
 Named May or Fay declared that I was true forever.

And for the farm I have a place Deep down in my affections. I also have of Ruth or Grace Fond recollections.

A FOOLISH FOR FAIR.

Edgy—If you just to tell me you know.
 Peggy—Well, your style of play would tell most anything.

HIS GUESS.

"Who was it wrote 'Distance lends enchantment to the view'?"
 "I don't know, but I'll bet he never sat on the grass and watched a ball game that was going on two blocks away."

NOT SO RAD.

Nervous Lady—Don't your experiences frighten you terribly, professor?
 Professor—Oh, that report was greatly exaggerated.
 Nervous Lady—Shattered! How?
 Professor—I wasn't much more than 2,500 feet that he fell.

SO BROILED.

Edgy—Don't turn over so much. What do you suppose we'd do if the best turned turtle?
 Clara—Oh, I suppose you'd turn lobster and join the turtle in eating I was to blame.

THE WHITING OF THE PRESENT WAR

Prof. McLaughlin Gave a Highly Interesting Address Before the Canadian Club

GERMAN MISTAKE

Used Great Attendants to Promote Evil Ends—Tribute to Premier Scott.

"The war and the little" was the subject of the lecture given before the members of the Canadian Club last evening by Professor Whitling, of the University of Montreal. The secretary, Mr. Dawson Johnston, presided, owing to the absence of the president.

A large number of the ladies of the Women's Canadian Club took advantage of the invitation, to attend the lecture and lecture, which was situated in the hall by the officers.

Mrs. Arthur Moore gave a solo in a most effective manner, and it was greatly enjoyed. The lecture was given in a pleasant and well-attended manner, and the speaker was well received.

NO ROAD GRANTS

Ontario Will Give None to Counties This Year.

Toronto, April 15.—Through the Provincial Roads Commission, the province has made provision for larger grants in connection with country roads.

The Roads Commission, however, has decided to make no grants for the present season. This together with the fact that the province has no money to spare, has resulted in the decision to make no grants for the present season.

WHEN THE JAPANESE SUBMARINE NO. 8 SANK

In these days of war Japanese submarines are being used for the purpose of attacking the shipping of the enemy. The Japanese submarine No. 8, which was sunk by the British ship "HMS" on April 10, 1915, was one of the most powerful submarines of its kind. It was a large submarine, and it was armed with a powerful gun. It was sunk by the British ship "HMS" on April 10, 1915, and it was the only Japanese submarine to be sunk by the British.
